

Kath Shirliff

In later years a number of people went to India to engage in schoolteaching at schools for missionaries' children, such as Brecks, Lushington and Hebron. One of the earliest being Miss Kath Shirliff from Nelson, who retired from Hebron in 1945 after long years of service, and passed to her reward in 1965.